

Exam Name – Certified Agile Developer (CAD)

Sample Exam

1) Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of a Waterfall approach?
(Choose three)

- A) Attempts to Define Detailed Requirements Upfront Prior to the Start of the Project
- B) Change Control may be Implemented to Manage and Limit Changes in the Project as it Progresses
- C) May be Broken Up into Phases with Phase Gates to Approve Phase Transitions
- D) Requires breaking up the project into iterations

Answer: ABC

2) True or False: A Waterfall approach is best suited for projects that have high levels of uncertainty

True

False

Answer: False

3) Which projects suits waterfall approach?

- A) Building the pyramids
- B) Projects with high certainty
- C) Building Bridges
- D) Software
- E) R & D

Answer: ABC

4) Which three are problems associated with the Waterfall model? (Choose three)

- A) Startup risk
- B) Cost risk
- C) Computation risk
- D) Financial risk
- E) Technical risk

Answer: ABE

5) Which approach helps in reducing project size by effectively making several mini-projects?

- A) Scrum
- B) Lean
- C) Agile
- D Pareto

Answer: C

6) Agile has multiple planning and development phases, known as _____

- A) Process
- B) Iterations
- C) Function
- D) Procedure

Answer: B

7) Which type of testing is associated with programmed checks to ensure that existing features continue to work as defined as new features are added?

- A) Black Box Testing
- B) Functional Testing
- C) Base Test
- D) Technical Testing

Answer: B

8) Which type of programming practice objective ensures wasteful to have two people doing the work of one?

- A) Automated Build
- B) Retrospectives
- C) Continuous Integration
- D) Pair Programming

Answer: D