

Exam Name – Certified Data Management Expert (CDME)

Exam Code – CDME-001

Sample Exam

Q) For all sponsored projects, the grantee or contractor must retain project data for:

- A) 3 years after the close of the project
- B) 3 years after submission of the final financial report
- C) 3 years after the submission of the final progress report
- D) None of the Above

Answer: C

Q) The three general categories of data to which retention requirements apply are:

- A) historical, financial, and research data.
- B) paper records, digital records, and recorded data.
- C) research, financial, and administrative data.

D) research, administrative, and general management data.

Answer: C

Q) If a researcher working under a sponsored project moves from Institution A to Institution B, it is important that either the original or a complete copy of the research data is left with Institution A because:

A) Institution B has no need for the data.

B) Institution A is responsible to the sponsor for retaining the data.

C) Institution A needs to send all the data to the sponsor.

D) None of the Above

Answer: B

Q) What best describes the focus of most institutional data retention policies:

A) ownership of the data.

B) retention of the data.

C) access to the data.

D) storage of the data.

E) A and D of the above

F) B and C of the above

Answer: F

Q) The entire research team has a role to play in Data Quality Management.

True

False

Answer: True

Q) What type of monitoring can a study team perform to identify possible issues with data quality or integrity?

A) For-cause auditing

B) Internal monitoring System

C) Random monitoring System

Answer: B