

Sample Exam

Exam Name: ISO/IEC 17020:2026 Certified Internal Auditor

Exam Code: ISO/IEC-17020-CIA

According to Type A inspection body requirements, the inspection body shall be independent of:

- A) Only the client
- B) The parties involved
- C) The public in general
- D) Only the regulatory authority

Answer: B

Which activity is PROHIBITED for a Type A inspection body and its personnel?

- A) Exchanging technical information with the client for clarifying requirements
- B) Purchasing inspected items for personal use by personnel
- C) Engaging in the design, manufacture, supply, installation, purchase, ownership, use or maintenance of the item inspected
- D) Purchasing items necessary for operations of the inspection body

Answer: C

A Type A inspection body shall NOT be:

- A) A part of a legal entity that is engaged in activities of the item inspected or similar competitive items
- B) Linked to a separate legal entity engaged in such activities through common ownership where owners can influence inspection outcome
- C) Both A and B
- D) None of the above

Answer: C

As per 8.6.2, while planning the internal audit program, the inspection body must consider:

- A) Only the results of previous audits
- B) Importance of inspection activities, changes affecting the inspection body and results of previous audits
- C) Only the frequency and methods
- D) Only the audit criteria

Answer: B

Who shall perform internal audits according to ISO/IEC 17020?

- A) Any available personnel
- B) Personnel knowledgeable in inspection and auditing, who do not audit their own work
- C) External auditors only
- D) The personnel responsible for the area audited

Answer: B

After an internal audit, what is the required action?

- A) Only retain records as evidence
- B) Report results to relevant management and personnel responsible, implement corrections/corrective actions without undue delay and identify opportunities for improvement
- C) Directly go for management review without reporting
- D) Only identify opportunities for improvement

Answer: B
