

Sample Exam

Exam Name: Certified Library Manager (CLM)

Exam Code: CLM-001

1. Which of the following is a core function of a library system?

- A) Marketing and sales of books
- B) Cataloging and classification of resources
- C) Hosting social media events
- D) Publishing books

Answer: B) Cataloging and classification of resources

2. What is a primary responsibility of a Certified Library Manager (CLM) regarding the library's collection?

- A) Designing the library building
- B) Selecting, acquiring, and evaluating resources
- C) Writing books for the library
- D) Conducting only digital surveys

Answer: B) Selecting, acquiring, and evaluating resources

3. Which skill is essential for library managers to engage effectively with staff and the community?

- A) Coding skills
- B) Interpersonal and communication skills
- C) Graphic design skills
- D) Carpentry skills

Answer: B) Interpersonal and communication skills

4. Why is strategic thinking important for library management?

- A) To memorize all book titles
- B) To plan long-term operations, integrate technology, and ensure sustainability
- C) To supervise cleaning staff
- D) To manage social media advertisements

Answer: B) To plan long-term operations, integrate technology, and ensure sustainability

5. Which of the following best describes the primary purpose of the Dewey Decimal Classification (DDC) system?

- A) To create a universal catalog of all libraries worldwide
- B) To organize library materials into ten main classes for easy access and retrieval
- C) To classify digital resources only
- D) To assign books randomly on shelves

Answer: B) To organize library materials into ten main classes for easy access and retrieval

6. What is a key advantage of the Library of Congress Classification (LCC) system over the DDC system?

- A) It is simpler and easier to use for small public libraries
- B) It uses a purely numerical system for all subjects
- C) It provides a detailed and flexible alphanumeric framework suitable for large academic collections
- D) It only categorizes digital materials

Answer: C) It provides a detailed and flexible alphanumeric framework suitable for large academic collections

True/False:

The Library of Congress Classification system cannot be adapted to include new fields of study as they emerge.

Answer: False